Hosted Service

If setting up an in-house Learning Management System is not a practical option, then buying space on an external server already set up with an LMS may be the answer.

Hosting services are ideal for:

Benefits of a Hosted Service:

- Enables you to implement your LMS while relieving you of hardware purchases, upgrades, and maintenance expenses.
- No need to worry about the technology, you'll be focused on getting results.
- Electrovision's hosting services are provided by a First Level Internet Service Provider – ensuring excellent service and availability.
- 24/7/365 monitoring, ensuring business information is secure.
